Understanding Speech Recognition Feedback

For every sentence, neo will allow you two to three opportunities to recognize your speech, depending on the level you are in. neo will display color-coded text after you release the Speech Recognition button. It will then provide you with feedback using colors to show what words were recognized:

✔ Green if the recognition is excellent

✔ Red if it is not recognized

If your speech is recognized, neo will automatically compare your recording with that of the native speaker and award you points based on your accuracy. If your speech is not recognized, neo will automatically play the model voice again and give you another opportunity for your speech to be recognized. After two or three unrecognized attempts, neo will move on to the next item.

Understanding Speech Recognition Points

First attempt:

- ✓ If every word is green on the first try, you will receive 20 points.
- ✓ If most of your sentence is recognized on the first try, you will receive 10 points.

Second Attempt:

- ✓ If all is green on the second attempt, you will get 10 points.
- ✓ If there are some words in red you will receive 5 points.

Third attempt:

- ✓ If all is green on the third attempt you will earn 5 points.
- ✓ If there are some words in red on the third attempt, you will receive 3 points.
